IPSO ANNUAL STATEMENT 2019

Overview

Tindle Newspapers is a family-owned, independent newspaper group. It is run by a board of directors under the ownership of Sir Ray Tindle.

Sir Ray remains president of the company after passing on the chairmanship to his son Owen in 2017.

The day-to-day running of the company rests with vice-chairman Wendy Craig and chief executive Danny Cammiade.

The company's UK headquarters are in Farnham, Surrey. There are newspaper centres around the UK, including the Devon, Somerset, Forest of Dean, Wales, Gloucestershire, Essex, Surrey, Hampshire and the Isle of Man.

The group employs more than 300 people and publishes in excess of 100 paid-for and free newspapers and magazines.

Tindle's Responsible Person

The Responsible Person is Colin Channon, editorial manager for Surrey and Hampshire. His email is colin.channon@tindlenews.co.uk and phone number [REDACTED]

Editorial standards

Tindle Newspapers takes very seriously the responsibility to publish material which is accurate and from trustworthy sources. Our newspapers are bonded to their communities and very close to their readers, so authenticity is of vital importance.

Rights of reply are always given and inaccuracies corrected at the earliest opportunity.

All Tindle journalists are aware of their responsibilities and the standards expected of them. They know to notify their line manager immediately of any complaint; the manager will notify the local editor, who will then contact the regional editor. Regional editors can contact the Responsible Person for advice and guidance.

The Responsible Person is notified of all complaints which may involve IPSO.

The complaints procedure, plus contact details of the senior editorial member if a reader has a complaint, is published in our newspapers and on every website.

Complaints-handling process

All our newspapers and websites carry comprehensive details of our complaints procedure, how readers can make complaints to each newspaper/website and to IPSO.

All complaints are dealt with promptly and include discussions with the complainant. Every attempt is made to resolve complaints amicably.

A record of all complaints, however minor, is maintained by a senior member of editorial staff at each centre. All complaints are discussed at weekly editorial meetings to see whether editorial procedures need to be reviewed or adjusted.

If a complaint cannot be resolved and is referred to IPSO, the regional editor will take charge of the process and full engagement with IPSO takes place. Should a complaint be upheld, the instructions on publication of adjudication are fully complied with.

Should a complaint be upheld, an examination would take place involving senior Tindle editorial staff, discussing the individual complaint and whether additional training or guidance is required for the individual reporter, the centre, or for all Tindle staff.

All IPSO complaints, whether upheld or not, are reported to the Responsible Person and the board members of Tindle Newspapers.

Training

All Tindle editorial staff are issued with copies of the Editors' Code.

Regional editors discuss with their staff all notices, warnings or guidelines issued by IPSO.

All journalists are told in their job offer letter that Tindle is signed up to the IPSO Code of Practice and that all employees are expected to follow the IPSO code at all times.

Tindle Newspapers' record on compliance

No complaints were upheld against our publications last year.

IPSO is aware of four complaints made against stories in Isle of Man newspapers, but no further action was required.
