

Pinpoint Scotland publish four of their own titles

Circulations as follows:

ENT & Audiology News [print 8550, Digital 6145]

Eye News [Print 4520, Digital 5321]

The PMFA Journal [Print 4000, Digital 8646]

Urology News [Print 3700, Digital 4733]

14 April 2022

Each magazine has its own website:

entandaudiologynews.com

eyenews.uk.com

thepmfajournal.com

urologynews.uk.com

All magazines are published bi-monthly and are mailed out through a controlled circulation to the UK & overseas. Digital issues for The PMFA Journal & Urology News can be viewed on their respective websites.

The company has three editorial co-ordinators who process the articles sent to us.

The magazines' editors are medical consultants within their chosen specialty and editorial supplied is generally written by specialist doctors or medical writers.

Each editor is supplied with our Editorial Board Guidelines and specific guidelines are sent to every contributing author. Additionally all contributors are asked to sign a declaration of interests.

Editorial meetings are generally held once a year and in some cases more than one.

Training

Staff training is generally carried out in-house. Should individuals require additional support then the company would source external expertise.

Complaint handling

The responsible person for the company is Justin Chater

Complaints can be directed to the Managing Director, who will seek to resolve the matter directly with the complainant.

Pinpoint Scotland has not yet sought pre-publication guidance from IPSO. However, it would do so if it needed advice on interpreting the Editors' Code of Practice or the public interest exception.
